Short Description —We provide production services for events. We have experienced every aspect of live job performances with no job too big or too small.

DESCRIPTION

We have decades of entertainment industry experience that includes all aspects of the business. This means we can produce and promote your event with the highest standards and integrity afforded by modern industry standards. We have worked with the biggest stars, at the biggest festivals, on the biggest stages, and in the finest recording studios. We have been around the world with major Headliners and toured the USA dozens of times through clubs, sheds, and festivals. This vast knowledge base now resides in the rural Mother lode foothills of California and is dedicated to help the community in succeeding with their get together. Let's make a party.
